RE: Protection of personal data law (May 2018)

Dear Sir/Madam,

On 25 May 2018 the new protection of personal data law commenced, iLC BV wishes to comply with this law and thus is sending you this letter.

We have in the past received some information about your firm and personal contact information from you that we have stored in our system. This information is used strictly for professional business purposes (communication, invoices etc.) and we hereby guarantee that the data available to us under no circumstances will be shared with external organizations.

iLC BV has the following information:

- Name(s) of the company/organisation
- Contact person(s) name(s), telephone number(s) and email address(es)
- Address(es) of the company/organisation
- VAT number
- Bank account number

All of this information is processed transparently. Please note:

- The collected data will be used unless you tell us not to use it
- You may indicate at any time to us that you wish for this data to be deleted, and it will be removed within our system
- You can ask us at any time to let you know what information we have of yours and we shall oblige by letting you know what is available to us

All of the employees at iLC BV are aware of this and we would be grateful if you would pass this information on to all of your colleagues to ensure that they are also aware of it.

We thank you for your cooperation,

Yours faithfully,

Avi Tzubar
